You may request confidentiality to the extent allowed by law of your personal information held by Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 50 by placing an X in the box.

You may request confidentiality to the extent allowed by law of your billing and consumption information held by Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 50 by placing an X in the box.

A request for confidentiality of personal information and/or billing and consumption information will not prohibit Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 50 from disclosing personal or billing and consumption information in a customer's account record to an official or employee of the State of Texas, a political subdivision of the State of Texas, or an official or employee of the United States acting in official capacity. Personal, billing, and consumption information may be disclosed to an employee of a utility acting in an official capacity, a consumer reporting agency, a contractor or subcontractor approved by and providing service to the utility, the State of Texas, a political subdivision of the State of Texas, or the United States. Personal, billing, and consumption information may be provided to another entity that provides water, wastewater, sewer, gas, garbage, electricity, or drainage service for compensation.

Personal, consumption, and billing information is not confidential if you have contractually waived your right to confidentiality.

A request for confidentiality may be rescinded by providing Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 50 with written permission to disclose personal and/or billing and consumption information. All requests shall be mailed or delivered in person to the official office of Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 50.
